It is observed from the Service register re J.H. Pinto that he was never a Sub-Magistrate but ~~from~~ he was Land Records Tahsildar, South Kanara from 24th July 1903 to 29th July 1906.

He resorted to the Secty after
17/9/21 a service of some years as Land Records Tahsildar: which office carried a much higher pay. There must have been some reason for the reversion which was certainly disadvantageous to him.
The Law (Genl) Dept may consult Rev. This Dept have nothing definite to say against him, except that he was found very much wanting in efficiency.

The Board of Rev may have info. It is however plain that Mr. J.M. Pinto has had no magesterial experience in his official career. As otherwise also he has not [illegible] it is for consideration whether the D.M. may be asked to submit another nomination in lieu of Mr. Pinto for the first class powers.
